

GrandFacts

National fact sheet for grandparents and other relatives raising children

AARP, The Brookdale Foundation Group, Casey Family Programs, Child Welfare League of America, Children's Defense Fund, and Generations United have partnered to produce state and national GrandFacts fact sheets for grandparents and other relatives raising children. The state fact sheets include state-specific data and programs as well as information about foster care, public benefits, educational assistance and state laws. Visit www.grandfactsheets.org to find this and all GrandFacts state fact sheets.

United States

The Children

- Almost 7.8 million children under age 18 live in homes where the householders are grandparents or other relatives (10.5% of all children under 18.) (U.S. 2010 Census)
 - Of these, more than 5.8 million live with grandparents who are the householders (7.9% of all children under 18 in the U.S.) and almost 2 million are living with other relatives who are the householders (2.6% of all children under 18 in the U.S.) (U.S. 2010 Census)
- More than 2.6 million children live in homes where grandparents are the householders and are responsible for them.*
 - Of these, almost 1 million children have no parents present in the home.*

The Grandparents*

- More than 2.5 million grandparents are the householders and are responsible for their grandchildren living with them. Of these:
 - 51.1% of these grandparents are White not Hispanic, 24.2% are African American; 18.7% are Hispanic/Latino; 2.9% are Asian, 2% are American Indian or Alaskan Native and 0.3% are Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander.
 - More than one-third have no parents of the children present in the home.
 - 67% are under the age of 60.
 - Almost 20% live in poverty.

* Comparable data are not currently available for homes where other relatives are the householders.

100% of poverty level.

Data not specifically cited are taken from the U.S. Census Bureau 2005-2009 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates, Detailed Table B09006 and Subject Tables S1001 and S1002. Additional data on related topics can be found on the Census Bureau website at <http://factfinder.census.gov>
