State fact sheets for grandparents and other relatives raising children

AARP, The Brookdale Foundation Group, Casey Family Programs, Child Welfare League of America, Children's Defense Fund, and Generations United have partnered to produce state and national GrandFacts fact sheets for grandparents and other relatives raising children. The state fact sheets include state-specific data and programs as well as information about foster care, public benefits, educational assistance and state laws. Visit www.grandfactsheets.org to find this and all GrandFacts state fact sheets.

Oklahoma

The Children

- 100,213 children under age 18 live in homes where the householders are grandparents or other relatives (10.8% of the children in the state.) (U.S. 2010 Census)
 - Of these, 79,580 live with grandparents who are the householders (8.6% of the children in the state) and 20,633 live with other relatives who are the householders (2.2% of the children in the state.) (U.S. 2010 Census)
- 45,633 children live in homes with grandparent householders where grandparents are responsible for them*
 - Of these children, 19,561 have no parents present in the home.*

The Grandparents*

- 43,215 grandparents are the householders and are responsible for their grandchildren living with them. Of these:
 - 66% of the grandparents are White and not Hispanic, 12% are Black/African American, 1% are Asian, 11% are American Indian and Alaska Native, and 6% are Hispanic/Latino, and may be of any race.
 - 46% have no parents of the children present in the home.
 - 66% are under age 60.
 - 20% live in poverty.
- 5,901 grandparents in Oklahoma City and 3,766 in Tulsa city are the householders and are responsible for their grandchildren living with them.

*Comparable data are not currently available for homes where other relatives are the householders.

100% of poverty level.

Data not specifically cited are taken from the U.S. Census Bureau 2005-2009 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates, Detailed Table B09006 and Subject Tables S1001 and S1002. Children in Foster Care

- Sometimes state child welfare agencies place children in foster care with grandparents or other relatives. This is often called “kinship care.”
- Federal law requires states to notify all known relatives within 30 days of children’s removal from their parents.

In 2010 in Oklahoma:

- 7,970 children/youth spent some time in out-of-home care
- 2,579 of these children/youth were placed in approved relative/kinship care

Placement Policies

If OKDHS determines that placement with the noncustodial parent is not in the child's best interest, preference is given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child, who are determined to be suitable, capable and willing to serve as caretakers for the child

Subsidized Guardianship

- When a child in the custody of Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) is placed in a paid kinship foster home with a relative who resides in Oklahoma and meets the specified degree of relationship as defined by the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program supported permanency may be explored, subject to the availability of funds.
- If a child is not eligible for the TANF Supported Permanency Program, the director of the Children and Family Services Division (CFSD), for good cause, may waive an eligibility requirement of the TANF Supported Permanency Program and approve a supported guardianship payment for the child, provided that the payments to the guardian are pre-authorized by CFSD and funded with non TANF dollars.

Public Benefits

Federal and state public benefits programs can help with income, food, healthcare, home energy, telephone and other needs for those who are eligible. Eligibility requirements vary with each public benefit and sometimes are different from state to state. Some benefits are for the family and others are for children or older adults individually. Children are often eligible for public benefits even if their caregivers do not have legal guardianship or custody. Grandparents may become eligible for benefits programs when their household size increases.

Help with Public Benefits

AARP Foundation's Benefits QuickLINK

A free and private way to find out if relatives or the children they are raising qualify for programs that pay for food, increase income and cover home and healthcare costs (listed below). It gives quick results, application forms and the address and phone number of the closest office.

Public Benefits for Older Americans:*

- Medicare Savings Programs
- Medicare Prescription Drug Coverage
- Medicare Rx Extra Help
- State Pharmaceutical Assistance programs (SPAP)
- Medicaid for Aged, Blind, and Disabled
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC)
- Low Income Home Energy Assistance (LIHEAP)
- State Property Tax Relief/Rebates
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Telephone Assistance (Link-Up and Lifeline)

Public Benefits for Families Raising Children*

- Medicaid for Children
- State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP)
- TANF-Child Only Grants
- Supplemental Security Income for Children

*Some of these programs may have age and income restrictions.

Educational Enrollment

Relative caregivers can contact their local school district's administrative office or their local school to find out how to register the child and what paperwork is needed. Caregivers may need birth records, health records or previous school records. Some states have laws that allow relative caregivers to enroll children they are raising in school. These laws are often called "education consent" laws, but may be called something else in your state.

Early Intervention, Special Education and Related Services

What you need to know:

- The Federal Individuals with Disabilities Act (IDEA) - From birth to age 21, children who have learning disabilities, physical disabilities or other special needs may be able to get special early intervention, preschool and special education services in school through the federal IDEA. Services may include speech, physical, and occupational therapies.

- Child Find – A part of the IDEA that requires states to identify, locate and evaluate children in the areas of cognitive and physical functioning, hearing and vision, speech and language and social and emotional development as early as possible. Once the Child Find evaluation team, which includes a child's caregivers, has decided if a child is eligible for early intervention or preschool special education services, an Individual Family Service Plan (IFSP; birth to three years of age) or an Individual Education Plan (IEP; three to five years of age) is developed and services begin shortly at no cost.
